Yes. I added the values for FL that were missing in the original table.
Thanks,

Thanks Karen for the review. I indicated we will share a draft with RD end of this week. Since they would like us to highlight both the TX and FL results (as opposed to just the highest), we will likely need to add a table with both sets of numbers (even though I know they used the distribution for both states).

I will review this tomorrow.

Amy

Below you will find the link to aldicarb DWA. I kept tracking changes for everybody to see. I left the monitoring graphs but I find some of them confusing and not much added value.

Thanks,
Karen
